DREAMING IN COLOR

TAKE YOUR PICK Allegro is STARK's new custom quick ship program, enabling designers to create, sample, and receive hand-tufted rugs in as little as six weeks. Choices range from 100 carefully curated colors in silk, semi-worsted wool, or silky nylon. starkcarpet.com; Suite 6-100

EYE CANDY Nice, by Matteo Thun and Antonio Rodriguez for Fantini, features a 4mm strip of color at its base that creates the illusion of a fully-colored handle. Available hues include red (shown), black, blue, turquoise, green, and white. fantinichicago.com; Suite 163

DESIGN GOALS A custom Butler's Pantry by designer Eric Roseff is outfitted in Christopher Peacock's Refectory Collection of handcrafted cabinetry painted in the brand's high gloss Black Blue color for a chic look. peacockhome.com; Suite 148

Lambourne, by Christopher Peacock, is inspired by a 16th century rural farmland area near Christopher's hometown Northeast of London. The collection is influenced by the rich paneling details from the local church and Lambourne Hall, and is anchored by a kitchen island that is reminiscent of an old scullery worktable.

THE MOST IMPORTANT ROOM IN THE HOUSE GETS A STYLE INFUSION

WRITTEN BY STEPHANIE AMES

Form and function do not have to be mutually exclusive, especially in the kitchen. The room—where families gather, where homework is done, and where delicious creations are attempted—should be both beautiful and efficient. Thankfully, that is more possible than ever, with companies creating furnishings, hardware, cabinetry, and surfaces that delight the senses and perform well under pressure.

For inspiration, these designers thought about how their clients use their kitchens, but also about style and how the room integrates into the rest of the home. Choosing products that blend seamlessly by picking up elements of color and design makes for a successful design throughout the home.

A common thread in our featured kitchens is the blending of styles. These successful designs incorporate traditional elements with a modern twist, found in unexpected finishes, textures, colors, and shapes. ■
