AREA SHOWROOMS FLAUNT THEIR NEWEST GOODIES FOR YOUR KITCHEN

HIDDEN CHARMS

Appliances don't have to be the eyesores of a kitchen. Sub-Zero has perfected the disappearing refrigerator concept, crafting integrated units available in custom fittings to seamlessly blend your refrigerator (and wine cooler) with your cabinets. Price upon request, through Clarke, clarkeliving.com, subzero-wolf.com.

WHAT'S NEW

TOP GEAR

Featuring a mitered edge, merging the front of the cabinet with the body to produce sleek vertical lines, the collaboration between Poggenpohl and Porsche Design Studio, P'7350, is a high-performance, luxury kitchen capable of customization to fit a family's needs. P'7350 is available for the first time in the U.S., through Nukitchens. Price upon request, through Nukitchens, nukitchens.com, poggenpohl.com.

LIGHT BITES

Finding your favorite midnight treat is easy with Häcker's LED integrated drawers. Available in multiple light-up color options, these high-end drawers combat darkness while raising the elegance of any kitchen. Price upon request, hackergreenwich.com.

SPANISH ACCENT

New from Porcelanosa is the Barcelona Collection of ceramic tiles. Geometric sequences create an eye-catching mosaic look, while circular patterns and outlines of stars provide rich textures evocative of fabric or wallpaper. Suitable for both floors and walls, the tiles are offered in five designs. Price upon request, porcelanosa.com.

TRADING SPACES

Want to reclaim your cabinet space? Ring's End has the fix: the LeMans II system—a pivoting tray insert for corner cabinets, which pulls out fully, optimizing your kitchen space. Price upon request, through Ring's End, ringsend.com, hafele.com.

PICK SIX

Available in six lengths, the Galley sink is the ideal workstation for any entertainer, big family or cooking connoisseur. The sink allows multiple chefs to prep at once and is conveniently equipped with an 11-piece, dual-tier culinary kit, including bowls, colanders, cutting boards and more. Price upon request, through Klaffs, klaffs.com, galleycollection.com.

WHAT'S NEW

PERSONAL PREP STATION

Applying the mise en place mindset to its under-counter refrigerator drawers, True Refrigeration has released the new drawer pan kit, available through Aitoro. With the avid chef in mind, these drawers offer easy access for up to six different ingredients, mimicking the cooking stations top chefs use in commercial spaces. Price upon request, through Aitoro, aitoro.com, truemfg.com.

GREAT GRAINS

Rooted in the traditional, while maintaining furniture-quality construction, this postmodern cabinetry collection from Christopher Peacock bridges the gap between cool contemporary and warm traditional design. Shown here in horizontal-grain rift oak with a soft taupe stain, the Motra Collection is available in custom materials and finishes. Price upon request, peacockhome.com.

IT TAKES TWO

Built for two, the Regulator gooseneck double-spout faucet from Waterworks is a nod to the industrial boiler rooms of the 20th century. The fixture seamlessly blends functionality and craftsmanship with art. Starting at $9,500, waterworks.com.

SLEIGHT OF HAND

Keep your favorite culinary gadgets close at hand but cleverly hidden from view with Deane's sliding Taj Mahal quartzite backsplash. Opening on either end, the backsplash combines pleasing aesthetics and modern functionality, making kitchen storage look good. Price upon request, deaneinc.com.

BELLA CUCINA

Providing the latest in Italian trends, IRP's new Factory Line kitchens focus on a natural stone look with seamless built-in handles for a clean surface. Made in Italy by Aster Cucine, the sharp designs deliver an irresistible European flair. Price upon request, irpkitchensny.com. —Christopher Lombardo
